Nestled amidst river bluffs on the sharpest navigable bend on the Mississippi River, Red Wing presents the perfect mix of river town history, artistry, theatre, crafts – and great shoes, of course.

Red Wing is an antique and pottery lover's paradise, and also is home to dozens of one-of-a-kind clothing, gift and craft stores. From the beautiful downtown to the historic Pottery Place Mall, you'll find unique treasures to warm your heart and make you smile long after you've left. Culinary confections, candles, hand-blown glass and Scandinavian and German keepsakes all await personal discovery. And the famous Red Wing Shoes and Red Wing Stoneware are purchased and collected across the country.

The town boasts one of the finest small theatres in the Midwest. The community is devoted and beloved to the beautifully restored Sheldon Performing Arts Theatre (built in 1904), and welcomes the draw of nationally known acts.

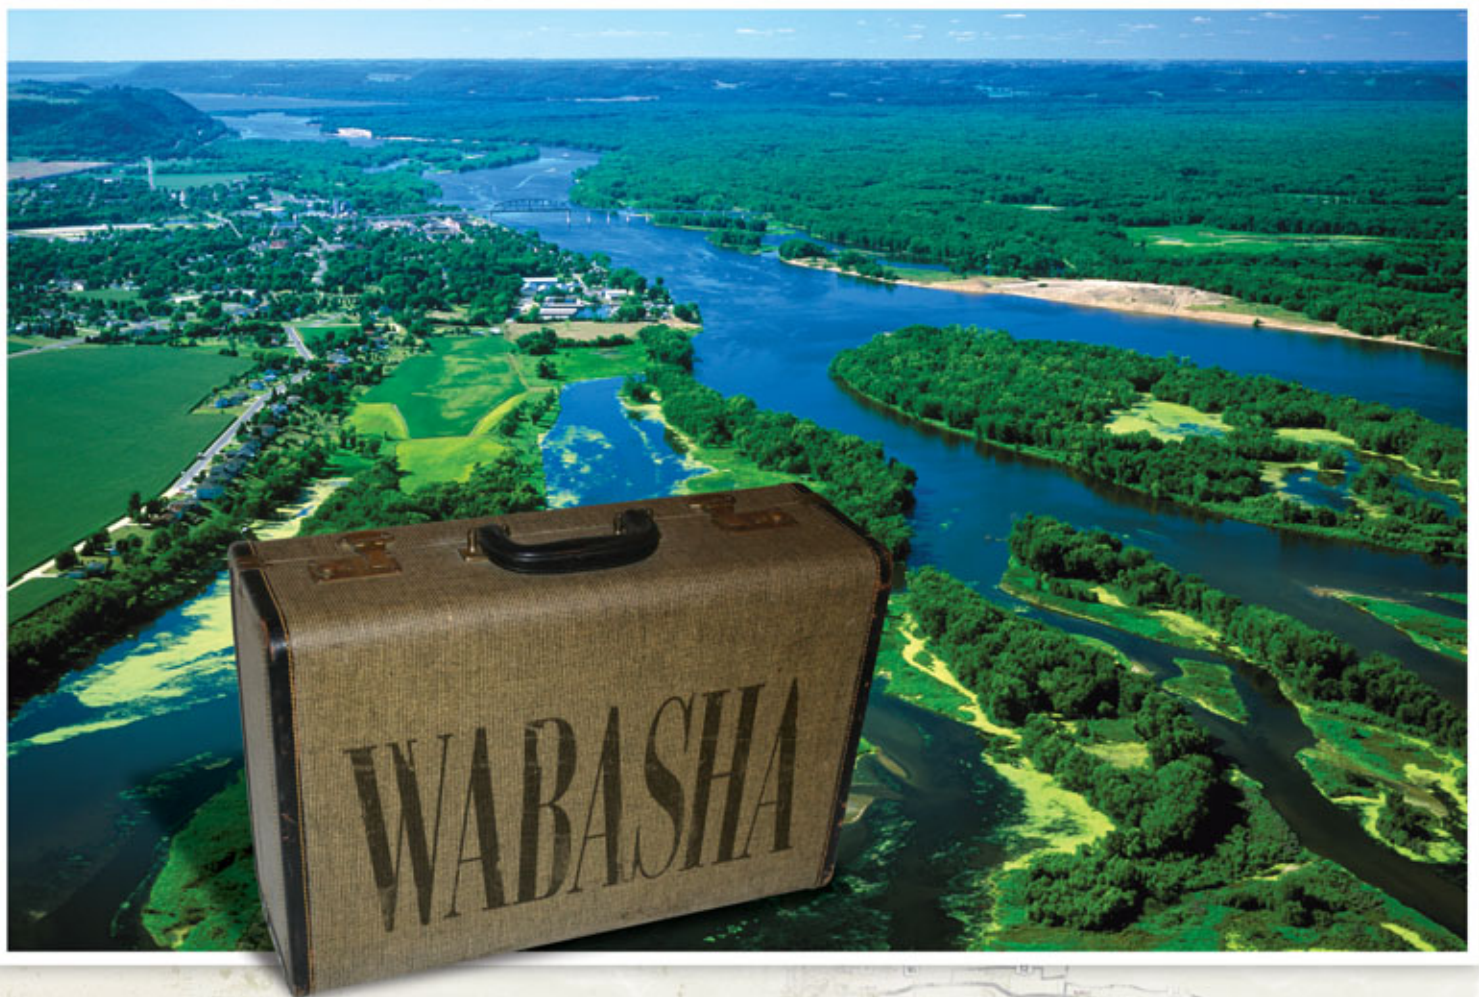

In the Arts, the Red Wing Arts Association Gallery gives you your first glimpse of works by talented local artists. Natural history buffs and young history protégés are fascinated by the Goodhue County Historical Center's exhibits. And welcome our recent addition to our long list of activities, the Falconer Vineyards Winery, now open for tours and tasting.

Red Wing's lodging leads the league in small-town lodging. The St James Hotel has provided the finest accommodations since 1875. None of its 61 guestrooms are alike, and each is named after a riverboat that used to pass through Red Wing. Seven charming motels provide travelers with more lodging options, and offer amenities you might not expect.

More importantly, Red Wing is much more than good shoes. It's great people.

Historic Rivertown, with Cheery Old-Fashioned Small Town Hospitality

Little more than a stones-throw apart, Wabasha and Kellogg are two of the oldest towns on the upper Mississippi. Wabasha was populated in 1826, and Kellogg shortly thereafter. Because of their history and close proximity to the Mississippi River, these communities offer a variety of activities including boating, sailing, golf, downhill skiing, and miles of hiking trails with some of the most incredible birding in the country.

Eagles gather in numbers during the winter months and nest in the charming town year round. The National Eagle Center houses three live eagles, (Angel, Harriet, & Columbia). Many visitors travel to Wabasha-Kellogg to have a "Nose to Beak" experience with America's National Symbol of Freedom – The American Bald Eagle.

Enjoy the river with Great River Houseboats, pontoons, riverboat dinner cruises on the Julia Belle Swain, and moonlight sailboat rides on The Messenger. More attractions for visitors and groups include Arrowhead Bluffs Museum, and The Jon Hassler Theater.

Fun, unique, and cultural, all describe what you will experience while shopping and visiting

L.A.R.K. Carousel & Antique Toy Museum, Bouquet Outlet Store, and the Wind Whisper West Kimono Gallery.

Free concerts under the bridge in downtown Wabasha on Friday evenings along with riverfront horse-drawn wagon and carriage rides are another local entertainment option you can discover during your stay.

A variety of uniquely appealing restaurants offer an amazingly diverse menu. The Historic Anderson "Cat" House offers 150 years of great food. Slippery's Bar and Grill offers riverfront dining along with its Grumpy Old Men fame. Riverboat Lanes offers a sports bar atmosphere, fresh homemade pizza and Thunder Alley Bowling. The Eagle Nest Coffee House offers great coffee and treats for all ages. The Cazumel offers authentic Mexican and the Fresh Wok offers Chinese Cuisine. Experience old fashioned gourmet chocolates at The Chocolate Escape.

Come enjoy our year-round playground on the magnificent Mississippi River, where scenic beauty meets small town tradition. Explore our unique shops and relax in our charming lodges and inns.

Historic Island City: A River Town Flowing with Culture

Winona is the southernmost of Minnesota's great Mississippi River towns on the scenic Great River Road. Founded by steamboat captain Orrin Smith in 1851, Winona's gateway location on the Mississippi River made it a primary transportation hub and one of the nation's richest cities by 1900. Many historic buildings and beautiful vintage homes echo the legacy, portraying Winona's ongoing harmony with the river to this day.

Known as the "Stained Glass Capital" of the United States, the city has studios that restore, repair, design, and create stained-glass pieces for buildings nationwide.

But it's not all about glass. The Winona County Historical Museum, Watkins Museum and Store, Polish Museum, Pickwick Mill, and the Minnesota Marine Art Museum all have historical and cultural memories that are unforgettable.

Don't miss a visit to Garvin Heights Overlook for a truly breathtaking panoramic view of the river valley, shop the downtown for unique gifts, or stroll Levee Park to view the gigantic barges. A new addition to our attractions is Garvin Heights Vineyards, open for tastings and tours.

Outdoor enthusiasts find that Winona is "heaven on earth." Headquarters to the Upper Mississippi River National Wildlife and Fish Refuge, popular activities range from canoeing to horseback riding, snowmobiling to cross-country skiing.

Winona also is home to the Great River Shakespeare Festival, Minnesota Beethoven Festival, Gilmore Creek Summer Theatre, and Frozen River Film Festival. Classic stage performances at Saint Mary's University, and Winona State University, concerts through Theatre du Mississippi, and art exhibits are thriving; and talented local artists and musicians contribute to the lively arts culture.

Winona truly is a treasure-filled destination. Come discover this great town and its people for yourself.

A Valley Deep in Art, Culture and Beauty

Nestled in the valley of the Root River, Lanesboro offers tourists invigorating outdoor activities, rich artistic experiences, unique shopping, a local winery, fine dining and lodging to fit every taste and budget.

Besides receiving the Great American Main Street Award in 1998, Lanesboro was named one of 100 Best Small Art Towns in America by author John Villani and one of the 50 Best Outdoor Sports Towns by Sports Afield magazine. Outside magazine featured Lanesboro, Minnesota as one of the 20 Best Dream Towns in America to live and play!

In Lanesboro, the arts thrive. Extraordinary exhibits appear year round at the Cornucopia Art Center, featuring a variety of regional artists. The Lanesboro Art Council programs more than a half dozen musical concerts a year in the St. Mane Theatre. More than 20,000 people attend live professional theatre at the acclaimed Commonweal Theatre Company, and when summer comes back around Lanesboro's own homegrown radio variety show, Over the Back Fence, is broadcast live on Sunday nights.

Biking lovers rave about the spectacular paved Root River State Bike Trail that winds 60 miles through the valley with Lanesboro at its heart. It runs along an abandoned railroad bed through high bluffs, forestlands, rolling fields and pure inspiration.

Enjoy the beauty and charm of downtown Lanesboro in class with a romantic horse drawn carriage ride, or relaxing Trolley Tour.

For old-fashioned fun and traditions, attend one of our annual festivals including the Stand-Still Parade each May, Rhubarb Festival each June, Art in the Park on Father's Day, Buffalo Bill Days in August, Fall Fest in October and Winterfest each February.

More recent immigrants to the area are the Old Order Amish. When driving our back roads, watch them working their fields with horse drawn equipment. In Sylvan Park, you may find the Amish selling produce, baked goods, traditional woodcrafts and quilting. Look for them in their black horse-drawn buggies, moving briskly through town.

Come and see for yourself why people return time and time again to slow down and take in the rich life of storied Lanesboro.
